JEFF RIMM

Tamaqua, PA

Jeff's art is inspired by nature and he puts a little bit of the outdoors in everything he creates.

He is also an active member of the Gallery Guild, a volunteer organization that manages The Gallery at the Tamaqua Art Center.

"Moon Burn"

In addition to the art work on display, Jeff has created custom signs, mechanical drawings for technical manuals, designed concert tee-shirts, illustrated several books, and created custom logo designs and advertising pieces for businesses throughout the state.

He has been commissioned to create custom paintings and woodworking items for customers throughout the United States and Europe.

"I've been lucky", says Rimm, "I seem to be in the right place to find inspiration for my work."

There is a story behind each of his pieces. From sitting in a cold creek in the Poconos on a hot summer morning, to driving by a farm on a snowy day, Jeff Rimm sees the "Timeless Possibilities" and brings them to life for the world to enjoy.

A master craftsman, Jeff creates many of his own frames, and can do the same for your precious photos and paintings. He is available for custom work—from signs to t-shirts.

The Gallery at the Tamaqua Art Center is a project of the Tamaqua Area Community Partnership, a 501(c)3 organization dedicated to the improvement of the quality of life throughout the Tamaqua area.

The Gallery is managed by an all-volunteer art guild and is located at 114 West Broad Street Tamaqua, PA 18252

The Gallery offers a wide of variety of exhibits and events throughout the year.
